

arburgXworld

Leading global manufacturer

ARBURG is a leading global manufacturer of injection moulding machines. Robotic systems, turnkey solutions and peripherals complete the modular ALLROUNDER range. We produce innovative, cost effective high-end injection moulding technology that will help to reduce unit costs and produce parts conveniently and flexibly, with an extremely high level of precision. Our unique technical components enable to work highly efficiently, day-in, day-out. machine fleet and access to production-related documents, ServiceCenter – record service and application tickets, overview of ticket status and history, Shop – search for and order spare parts, Calendar – overview of scheduled service calls, SelfService – analyze machine faults and shutdowns.

arburgXworld

ARBURG is driving forward the digitalisation of services and business processes with "arburgXworld". arburgXworld gives access an report information 24/7 and with fee-based packages it offers more service and additional features. Some of the applications: MachineCenter – overview of the machine fleet and access to production-related documents, ServiceCenter – record service and application tickets, overview of ticket status and history, Shop – search for and order spare parts, Calendar – overview of scheduled service calls, SelfService – analyze machine faults and shutdowns.

Adjust and control the production

With arburgXworld operators are able to adjust and control production processes with the app that offers extensive data integration options, monitors and adaptively controls the processes, and supports in every operating situation.

ARBURG - the partner for the entire injection molding process

ARBURG BV Netherlands ,contact Robbert Weijers

ARBURG NV
De Vunt 13
3220 Holsbeek
+32 16 441290
belgium@arburg.com

ARBURG NV, contact Anton Kavse

Both companies are subsidiaries of ARBURG GmbH + Co KG in Lossburg (Germany)